The 8th Biennial HBK Symposium on Islamic Art takes place in the Atrium at VCUarts Qatar, located at Education City in Doha, Qatar. At this international school for art and design, budding fashion designers, art historians, painters, graphic designers, printmakers and interior designers are discovering and honing their talents, as they experience a VCUarts education 7,000 miles away. VCUarts Qatar also collaborates with VCUarts Richmond, through semester exchange programs for rising juniors and seniors. About 300 students are enrolled at this sister campus, which focuses on the liberal arts and sciences with degrees in the arts and design.

Since VCUarts Qatar opened, the school has been very involved in the development of Qatar's emerging design industry, helping to further the creative economy in this Middle Eastern country. VCUarts Qatar regularly hosts Tasmeem Doha, the biennial international art and design conference, attracting speakers and artists from across the world.

VCUarts Qatar was the first American college built in Doha's "Education City." We're now neighbors with the Qatar campuses of Cornell, Carnegie Mellon, Georgetown, Northwestern, Texas A&M, HEC Paris and University College London.
